

I strongly oppose any more consolodation of public media access outlets
I would like to add my observations about Docket No. 02-277, the BiennialReview of the FCC's broadcast media ownership rules. It is against your, my and the rest of the public's interest to looses the media ownership rules that are now extant. I feel that the media market is already too concentrated, too homogeneous, too bland, and lacking in local coverage, real content and honest debate.

Please witness the fact that debate about this issue across the country is proportionally a whisper when the issue deserves a shout and ask yourself if we should loosen any more rules. Common sense tells us that the only outcome of this will be even more silence about important issues, while more graphic designers are hired to tout the newest prepackaged sitcom.

Simply put, the United States does not need any more crap.

And to tell us citizens that the continues consolidation of the purveyors of content on the airwaves (and lines) that this public owns will benefit us in any way is crap and you know it.

Please stop this consolidation now, and do not let it go any further, lest your voice too be silenced.

This is an issue I care deeply about. And I do vote. And I watch your performance via Megavote.

Respectfully, but watchfully,

Henry W. Farkas
